COMMEO promotes Isabel Oest to partner as of 1 January 2021

Frankfurt am Main – COMMEO appoints Isabel Oest as partner as of 1 January 2021. The Frankfurt-based law firm specializing in German and European antitrust law now consists of five partners, one counsel and five associates.

The founding partners Dr. Jörg-Martin Schultze, Dr. Dominique Wagener, Dr. Stephanie Pautke and Dr. Johanna Kübler agree: "We are delighted that our partner team has been strengthened by Isabel, a colleague who is equally persuasive both professionally and personally. It is something very special when a law firm of our size grows from within its own ranks. We are very much looking forward to continue working with Isabel and to jointly further develop our firm."

Isabel Oest is a recognized expert in German and European antitrust law and is recommended, among others, by Legal 500 Germany and Who's Who Legal Competition Future Leaders. Her main practice areas include complex merger control and cartel proceedings before the German Federal Cartel Office and the European Commission, inter alia for clients active in the areas automotive supply, energy, mechanical engineering, hospitals and services. Her practice also focuses on antitrust damages claims. Furthermore, Isabel Oest advises on issues of abuse of dominance and on the preparation and implementation of compliance audits and trainings.

Isabel Oest studied law at the Universities of Trier, Cologne and East London and obtained her Master of Laws (LL.M) at the University of New South Wales, Sydney (Australia). After starting her career as an associate at the international law firm Baker&McKenzie, Frankfurt, she was part of the founding team of COMMEO in 2010.

COMMEO is a specialized law firm focusing exclusively on competition law. An established team of experienced lawyers advises national and international clients on all aspects of German and EU competition law.
